DESPERATE FIGHT OF CHICAGO OFFICERS.

Chicago, March 22.—In one of the most desperate encounters between police and alleged desperadoes since the capture of the notorious car barn bandits, four men suspected of being implicated in the murder of Fritz Krueger, a saloon keeper, early Sunday morning, were captured by the police to-day. Almost the entire police department of the Northwest side, as well as central station detectives, participated in the round up of the alleged robbers.

Frank Krueger, one of the captured men, was shot through the ear, the bullet furrowed its way along the back of the skull. It was subsequently reported to Inspector Revere that a man answering the description of Frank Papicich, Jr., who escaped during the fight after it was thought he had been wounded, had been arrested at Waukegan. The man, it is said, was suffering from a bullet wound in the back.

The suspects were arrested at their respective homes and in every case it is claimed the police were forced to break down the doors to make the arrests, and desperate resistance was shown. Many shots were exchanged, but no officer was wounded.

DANDRUFF DON'T WASH OUT.

The Germ That Causes It Has To Be Destroyed, to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking that by scrubbing off the scurf she will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 200 days of 12 hours each, or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thorough antiseptic against all contagion from use of other's hair brushes. Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.
